APRIL 20, 2014 ~ EASTER SUNDAY OF THE RESURRECTION OF THE LORD

Easter Sunday April 20, 2014

When Christ your life appears, then you too will appear with him in glory.

— Colossians 3:4

The real NEWS that everyone MUST read!!!

There is no news that God will not reveal. There is no message that God will not share. The greatest news that happens to all is that CHRIST, the SAVIOR, is truly RISEN! ALLELUIA! BEHOLD, HE IS ALIVE! The angel of God proclaimed at the tomb the greatest news, "He is not here, for he has been raised!" (Matthew 28:6)

The message of the empty tomb brings and challenges us to "go and tell" (Matthew 28:10) of this good news to everyone. Through the suffering of Christ's death, we saw the power of life. He has defeated death. The marks of his life, death and resurrection are the very symbol of his love.

If we get close to the tomb and discover the risen Christ ourselves, we shall all the more be challenged to announce to all people this experience. The empty tomb is showing us that Jesus rose us to new life. He has truly risen to a place where he will reign, in his glory, and rule over everything that there is. During this Easter time, we are all called to the encounter of the risen Christ in our lives. We are the Easter people and that is a wonderful news!

It's now time for us to proclaim what we have just heard that Christ is risen from the dead. Our inward character, our courage, to actively participate in the mission of our Church, our parish, is an outgrowth of who we are as the new Disciples of Christ. Be inspired by the message of the great news. May you all have a blessed Easter in this year of our Lord, 2014!

On behalf of my clergy team, Fr. Ronald, Deacon Mike, Deacon Errol and the parish staff, we offer our gratitude and appreciation for your ongoing support of our great parish of St. Basil.

May you all have a blessed Easter in this year of our Lord, 2014!

Fr. Tamayo and Fr. Ronald

Strengthen the Church at Home
Support the Catholic Home Missions Appeal

Catholic Home Missions: Next Weekend

Next Sunday, our parish will be taking up a collection for the Catholic Home Missions Appeal. This Appeal supports missions here in the United States. The Archdiocese of Anchorage has 11,500 registered Catholic families, 140,000 square miles, and only 30 active diocesan priests. Sadly, such shortages occur often in United States mission dioceses. The Catholic Home Missions Appeal supports religious education and seminary training to bring increased pastoral care to our home mission parishes. Please give generously in next week's Appeal. A portion of the collection will also support the effort by the Church for Black and Native American Indians.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

The Lenten journey is now complete, its mission of renewal and preparation to receive new life fulfilled. The call to worship the Risen Lord has been received, and we gather to experience together the consoling presence of Christ in word and sacrament. We are at our best today, crowded and cramped to be sure, but the fullest sign of who we are meant to be. Christ has claimed us in the waters of baptism, we have acquired wonderful companions, and together we can accomplish great things.

This is the day for rekindling the old flames of baptismal commitment, so we light the paschal candle, and by its light we make yet again the ancient promises to reject evil's grip and empty promises. Today we do not recite the Creed, but respond with one voice to age-old questions. New life has to be nurtured, both the life of the newly baptized and the renewed life of those who have passed through Lent's refining prayer, fasting, and giving alms. At any Mass during the next fifty days, you may be surprised by grace and splashed by water!

CHRIST HAS RISEN

Where is your sting, O death? Where is your victory, O hell? Christ has risen, and you are overthrown. Christ has risen, and the demons have fallen. Christ has risen, and the angels rejoice. Christ has risen, and life reigns. Christ has risen, and not one dead rests in the grave. For Christ having risen from the dead became the first-fruits of them that slept. To him be glory and majesty to ages of ages. Amen.

—Byzantine Pentekostarion

Very early in the morning after the Sabbath, Mary Magdalene went to the tomb to anoint Jesus' body with precious oils. The reward of this good and conscientious steward was to be among the first to know that Jesus had been raised from the dead! Alleluia!
