The Gospel today is sometimes called "the Gospel in miniature" because it so concisely sums up the Gospel message. In even more condensed form, "God loved...God gave..." is the paradigm for stewardship - we give because we love. Stewardship by the Book...Sharon Hueckel

LIFE IN THE TRINITY

The name of the Trinity is, without a doubt, the most familiar sacred name to us. We speak it every time we make the sign of the cross, and it forms the heart of our Creed. Trinity Sunday is a good day, however, to stop and reflect on the unique role of each of the three persons we name so often in the Trinity and in our own lives. When we celebrate the Eucharist on Sunday, we come together as the Body of Christ through our baptism, and through the power of the Holy Spirit we offer the whole prayer of the Mass to God the Father. This presence of the Trinity does not stop when we leave church on Sunday. We are—always and everywhere—members of the Body, and every thing we do as members of that Body is empowered by the Holy Spirit, all of it offered to the glory of our loving Father.

Take a moment each day this week to reflect on how the persons of the Trinity were present to you during the day, and how other people came to see the presence of the Trinity in your witness to the Good News.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

The liturgy seems reluctant to return to Ordinary Time from the joys of Easter, and so the festivities extend to today's celebration of the mystery of God's relationship to us as Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. The Gospel today centers the question of our relationship with God in the struggle of Nathaniel to believe that it is possible to experience "rebirth" in the Spirit. The answer of Jesus is that God's response to the messes of this world is the mystery of saving love in Jesus Christ and the outpouring of an empowering Spirit.

Western church architecture often tops a church building with a spire, indicating humanity's reach to a transcendent God. The Eastern Church responds with onion-shaped domes, indicating the Spirit's being poured down upon humanity precisely at this locale, the gathering of the faithful for the Divine Liturgy. This familiar design encodes a great mystery: here, at the Lord's table, we experience the outpouring of the Spirit for the life of the world. Nathaniel came to Jesus by night, since he was still working out the meaning of his life. A life attuned to the inner life of the Trinity must always be given to the light of day.

Summer ON A SUMMER'S DAY

Rest is not idleness, and to lie sometimes on the grass under trees on a summer's day, listening to the murmur of the water, or watching the clouds float across the sky, is by no means a waste of time.

HAPPY FATHER'S DAY

Dear God, our Heavenly Father,

Thank you for the gift of our Fathers. They protect us, provide for us, counsel us, and guide us. Our fathers motivate us to dream big and to follow our dreams. They give us a truth to believe in, a vision to seek, a purpose to live for, and a destiny to fulfill. Our dads stand in Your place, O God, until the day we meet You, face to face.

Protect our fathers, guide them, and be a Father to them! Console them. Renew their faith, hope, and courage. Show them how to best lead and provide for their families in these challenging times.

O Lord, give our fathers joy! Let them feel Your love in their hearts and Your peace in their souls.

May they know and enjoy the love of their families and friends this day as well.

Dear Saint Joseph, husband of Mary, pray for our fathers and give them your strength, your integrity, and your purity of heart. May they never lose heart in their sacred mission of leading their family to heaven.

Dear Lord, may our dads truly enjoy a wonderful Father's Day! In Jesus' name. Amen.
