09/28/14: $9,312.67

In the Gospel today, the owner of the vineyard sent messengers to collect his share of the harvest from the tenant farmers, but there was not a single good steward on the property! God is the owner, we are the tenants. What sort of stewards are we?

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — The vineyard of the LORD is the house of Israel (Isaiah 5:1-7).

Psalms — The vineyard of the Lord is the house of Israel (Psalm 80).

Second Reading — God's peace will guard your hearts and minds (Philippians 4:6-9).

Gospel — The kingdom of God will be given to those who will produce its fruit (Matthew 21:33-43).

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

The sacrament of penance has a long and difficult history. The Church sometimes struggles with how best to be faithful to the image of an all-forgiving God. Once a very public rite with publicly visible participation on the part of the penitent, it became in time a very private matter. By the fourteenth century, when a prayer of absolution and a laying on of hands was still required in sacramental confession, theologians were saying that even that was too much liturgy. All that was required was confession itself, and the sacramental words Ego te absolvo, or "I absolve you."

In 1614 the Council of Florence tried to flesh out this bare skeleton, requiring that if possible the priest should wear a stole, that the confession should be in church, and that there be questions about the person's state in life, occupation, and last confession. This is the first time the Church recommended that the penitent and priest be separated by a grill, thereby eliminating the ritual laying on of hands once so central to the sacrament, substituting the priest's raised right hand in blessing. This is the rite that remained in force until the sacrament became the subject of very stormy debates at the Second Vatican Council, leading to a major reform in 1974 that is still only partially received.

MASTER AND SERVANT

Money is a terrible master but an excellent servant.—P. T. Barnum

IN THE VINEYARD

As usual, today's first and third scripture readings are obviously related, with the second continuing one of Paul's Letters—these days, the Letter to the Philippians. The vineyard stories from Isaiah and Matthew both talk about evildoers coming to a bad end.

In Isaiah, it's the vineyard itself that produces "wild grapes" instead of the crop the owner dreamed of and worked for. So it will be "trampled" and "overgrown with thorns." In Matthew, those to whom the owner leased the vineyard destroy the dream. So the owner "will put those wretched men to a wretched death and lease his vineyard to other tenants" (Matthew 21:41).

Yes, if we reject divine love we come to a bad end. And with all this talk of the unfaithful being trampled and thrown out, it's consoling to hear Paul's message to the Philippians, who were by no means perfect. "Have no anxiety at all," Paul said. "Then the God of peace will be with you" (Philippians 4:6, 9).

Do you want to learn more about how to discern a life direction? Have you ever wanted to experience how monks live? The monks of the Abbey of Our Lady of New Clairvaux Trappist monastery in Vina, CA are pleased to invite single Catholic Men age 35 and under seeking to discern God's further call for their lives to a Life Discernment Weekend to be held Oct. 10-12, 2014. The Weekend's offerings include conferences on Vocation Discerning: How to Listen; the Theology of Vocation; Monastic Prayer; and monks sharing their own vocation story and experience. Participants will also have the opportunity to share in the monastic life for the weekend, pray the Liturgy of the Hours in the Abbey church and share a meal with the monks. Rooms and meals are provided in the monastery guesthouse; the weekend is on us! For more information and online registration interested parties may visit our website at www.newclairvaux.org or contact Vocations' Director Br. Christopher by phone at (530) 839-2161.

October 18, 5:00 p.m. - White Mass for doctors, nurses and all health care workers will be celebrated at the Cathedral of the Blessed Sacrament. The White Mass was begun by the national Catholic Medical Association in 1930 as a way of supporting Catholic doctors and nurses. It is so named for the color traditionally worn by those in the healing professions. Bishop Myron Cotta will celebrate. Physicians are encouraged to wear white lab coats.

JOB ANNOUNCEMENT - The Diocese of Sacramento, Office of Finance is currently seeking part-time/temporary data entry clerks to process contributions. Candidates must have a strong attention to detail, type at least 50 wpm and have ten-key (by touch) skills. To apply, please email your cover letter and resume to April Auger at aauger@scd.org or fax (916) 733-0224.

New Pathways Counseling - A program of Catholic Charities of Solano, 125 Corporate Place, Suite A, Vallejo, CA 707-556-9137 ext. 212

When things go wrong or get tough, people sometimes need the assistance of a professional counselor. New Pathways Counseling's clinical team works with children, teens, adults, couples, and families. Licensed, post-graduate counseling trainees and interns provide counseling in coping with challenges such as: relation difficulties, couples counseling, personal stress, infidelity issues, depression, anxiety, parent-child conflicts, abuse, domestic violence, bullying, and more. Evening and Saturday appointments are available. Offices are located in Benicia, Vallejo and Vacaville. Fees: Fees are on a sliding scale, based on the income of the individual or family. Many insurance plans cover our services and we accept victim restitution.

Community Outreach staff from the Catholic Funeral & Cemetery Services, a Ministry of the Diocese of Sacramento will be here on October 11 and 12, 2014 to discuss the spiritual and practical reasons for learning about Catholic Funeral & Cemetery Services.

After each Mass, there will be a short presentation with a question and answer session in the Fr. Garrigan Room. Please take advantage of this opportunity to better understand the importance of a Catholic funeral and burial.

Please pray with our Lazarus Ministry for the recently deceased members of our parish community especially:
