Jesus' commandment is that His disciples love one another, even to the point of laying down their lives, if necessary. What gifts of myself - my skills and talents, my time and resources - will best demonstrate my love for God's people? Stewardship by the Book...Sharon Hueckel

MAY 10, 2015 ~ SIXTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

Sixth Sunday of Easter May 10, 2015

It was not you who chose me,
but I who chose you
and appointed you to go and bear fruit. — John 15:16

LOVE ONE ANOTHER

Last Sunday we heard the familiar passage from John's Gospel in which Jesus uses the metaphor of the vine and the branches. In that passage we were told that if we remained in Christ we would bear much fruit. Today's Gospel tells us just what that fruit is: love. Today's second reading and Gospel together create a great hymn to love. The chorus of this hymn is simple—God loves us so much that Jesus was sent into the world so that we would have life. The Lord Jesus, who last week told us to remain in him, this week tells us to remain in his love. In a world marked by division and terrorism, the Lord's final words in today's Gospel are a great challenge: "This I command you: love one another." Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — The gift of the Holy Spirit was poured out on the Gentiles also (Acts 10:25-26, 34-35, 44-48).

Psalm — The Lord has revealed to the nations his saving power (Psalm 98).

Second Reading — God is love (1 John 4:7-10) or 1 John 4:11-16.

Gospel — No one has greater love than this: to lay down one's life for one's friends (John 15:9-17) or John 17:11b-19.

Monastic Immersion Weekend

The monks of New Clairvaux Abbey invite Catholic men ages 18-35 to immerse themselves in the ancient yet living monastic tradition for the weekend of May 15-17. Participants will be able to: Join the monks for prayer in the Abbey Church; Receive conferences on "Monastic Prayer" and "Cistercian Spirituality"; View the award-winning film "Of Gods and Men" about the Cistercian martyrs of Algeria followed by panel discussion; Share a meal with the monks; Experience the contemplative atmosphere of the abbey grounds, and more. Information and Online registration available at www.newclairvaux.org or contact Br. Christopher at 530-839-2161. Meals and lodging are provided in the monastery guesthouse. The weekend is on us!

DEEP DEBT

My mother was the most beautiful woman I ever saw. All I am I owe to my mother. I attribute all my success in life to the moral, intellectual, and physical education I received from her. —George Washington

SMALL TASKS

Each small task of everyday life is part of the total harmony of the universe.

—St. Thérèse of Lisieux

LITTLE THINGS

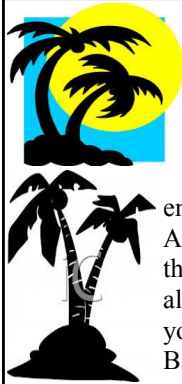

Faithfulness in little things is a big thing.

—St. John Chrysostom

Living God's Word

Sometimes we may feel that we are not even capable of loving as Jesus loved. In today's first reading we see that God is so eager to enter our hearts and enable us to love that the Holy Spirit falls upon those listening, even though they have not yet been baptized. Ask God to help you love as Jesus loves.

What is the feast of Corpus Christi?

The Feast of Corpus Christi (Latin for Body of Christ), also known as Corpus Domini, is a Latin Rite liturgical solemnity celebrating the tradition and belief in the body and blood of Jesus Christ and his Real Presence in the Eucharist. It emphasizes the joy of the institution of the Eucharist, which was observed on Holy Thursday in the somber atmosphere of the nearness of Good Friday.

In the present Roman Missal, the feast is designated the solemnity of The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ. It is also celebrated in some Anglican, Lutheran, and Old Catholic Churches that hold similar beliefs regarding the Real Presence.

The feast is liturgically celebrated on the Thursday after Trinity Sunday or, "where the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ is not a holy day of obligation, it is assigned to the Sunday after the Most Holy Trinity as its proper day". At the end of the Holy Mass, there is often a procession of the Blessed Sacrament, generally displayed in a monstrance. The procession is followed by Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament.

In the Eucharist procession that is presided over by the Pope each year in Rome, the procession begins at the Archbasilica of St. John Lateran and makes its way to the Basilica of Saint Mary Major, where it concludes with Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament.

Lord Jesus, we ask you to bring your peace and healing touch to those who are ill, or afraid or worried.

AMEN.

TRAVELLING?

go to..... www.MassTimes.org

Many people have said that what drew them to the Catholic Church was the Eucharist. As we reflect on recognizing Jesus in the Breaking of the Bread, think for a moment whether there is someone you could invite to Mass and to explore what else the Catholic faith might hold for them. Inquiry sessions are starting for those who have never been baptized or who have been baptized in a non-Catholic tradition, as well as adult Catholics who have not been confirmed. For more information, contact our RCIA coordinator Rose Jenschke at (707) 746-8620 or call the parish office at (707) 644-5251.
