Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time
October 25, 2015

The LORD has done great things for us;
we are glad indeed.

— Psalm 126:3

TRUE BLINDNESS

Bartimaeus caused a stir. Normally he sat by the side of the road being a “good blind beggar.” But one day Jesus passed nearby. Bartimaeus jumped up and called out to Jesus. We can imagine him turning toward the direction of the commotion and noise. Bartimaeus probably had his arms outstretched as he shouted out to the son of David.

The people who knew him were embarrassed by his outburst. They tried to hush him up and get him to sit back down by the roadside. Their actions spoke volumes: “Bartimaeus, you’re not fit for Jesus.” But it was okay for them and other “sighted” people to follow Jesus. In today’s readings, we learn that true blindness is not a condition of our eyes but of our hearts.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

In the tangled but fascinating history of penance in the Church, the Irish “tariff” system helped us survive the collapse of the old system of public canonical penance and prepared the way for a new system that emerged in the twelfth century. The old form was unrepeatable, public, dealt with serious community matters, and regulated by the bishops as chief reconcilers. The new form had a more intimate setting of penitent and confessor, was extremely repeatable, and applied to everyone. The old canonical form was closed to children, who were hardly capable of the very grown-up sins listed, or their demanding remedies. The old form was likewise closed to clerics, who were protected in a sense by the very nature of the discipline.

In the new Irish form the penitent directly named sins, or answered direct questions by the priest. Sometimes, the penitent would recite a long formula accusing him- or herself in a general way of all sorts of sins, even from the distant past. Next, priest and penitent together would lie prostrate before the altar and recite several of the psalms with penitential themes. Finally, the priest would pronounce a judgment, deciding what form and duration the penance should take, normally insisting that the person return for reconciliation once the penances were completed.

TODAY’S READINGS

First Reading — I will lead the people to brooks of water, on a level road, so that none shall stumble (Jeremiah 31:7-9).

Psalm — The Lord has done great things for us; we are filled with joy (Psalm 126).

Second Reading — It was not Christ who glorified himself, but rather the one who said to him: You are my son: this day I have begotten you (Hebrews 5:1-6).

Gospel — Immediately the blind man received his sight and followed Jesus on the way (Mark 10:46-52).

Living God’s Word

Isaiah’s servant sounds like the wise and wrinkled old one whose selfless devotion helped make his marriage work, one who knowingly and willingly bore the guilt of others. This is also our image of Jesus. Is our image of ourselves like it?

POSSIBILITIES

All things are possible for one who believes, more to one who hopes, even more to one who loves.

—St. Lawrence

Jesus asked the blind man, "What do you want me to do for you?" Our SVdP volunteers ask, "How can we help you?" Most people respond by asking for assistance with emergency food. We ourselves recently had to ask for help - to get our food locker roof fixed to keep our supplies cool and leak free. Through the grace of our Lord, we were able to get the work done last week. Now we're ready for the rain that we've been praying for! Food Locker Wish List: Package/bottle of Bacon Bits or Canned Cranberry Sauce

40 Days for Life Finale will be at Holy Spirit Church, 1070 No. Texas St., Fairfield on November 1st. Mass at 2:00pm followed by Potluck Social Gathering with our National Director, David Bereit from 3:30 - 5:00pm. There will be a leaders meeting to follow from 5:00 - 6:00pm with David Bereit.

The one eliminated is a human being in the very beginning of life. No one more absolutely innocent could be imagined. - Pope John Paul II- EvangeliumVitae
